RECORD REQUESTS OF THE DEPARTMENT
D.T.E. 02-29-11

November 6, 2002

Witness Responsible: Damian Cipriani

RR-D.T.E.-2:

Please state whether the amounts shown as credits on the complainant's June, 2002 and July, 2002 telephone bills ($39.89 and $133.39, respectively) have actually been credited to the complainant's account by ADST, and provide the status of any further adjustments or credits to the complainant's account.

Response:

The amounts shown as credits on the complainant's June, 2002 and July, 2002 telephone bills ($39.89 and $133.39, respectively) have been credited to the complainant's account by ADST, although credits may take several billing cycles to show up on the customer's bill. To the best of our knowledge, no further amounts remain to be credited or adjusted in complainant's favor with respect to this account.

November 6, 2002

Witness Responsible: Damian Cipriani

RR-D.T.E.-3:

Provide the street address of the office of Damian Cipriani, the president of the company, and its regulatory affairs agent, Yanilu Rondon. Also, provide the name and location of the TPV vendor responsible for the complainant's TPV, and state whether that vendor is licensed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Response:

The street address of Damian Cipriani, the president of ADST, and Yanilu Rondon is:

America's Digital Satellite Telephone
500 North Rainbow Blvd., Suite 300
Las Vegas, Nevada 89107

The TPV vendor responsible for the complainant's TPV was Federal Verification, 230 Judson Way, Alpharetta, Georgia 30022. Federal Verification is not licensed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a TPV vendor. ADST no longer uses Federal Verification for TPV purposes, and has ceased marketing to new customers altogether in Massachusetts.
